

Second Americas Institute for Transformation and Reconciliation
"Transformation and Reconciliation for Peaceful and Just Coexistence"

General Programming

(Estimated study time: 130 academic hours)

All sessions will be on Thursdays, 7:00 to 9:00 pm, EDT / 6:00 to 8:00 pm, EST

Methodology	Module Goal	Module Duration	Synchronous Activities	Date of Synchronous Activity	Asynchronous Activities
Orientation Session: Thursday, October 28, 7:00 to 9:00 pm
The Word Made Flesh	New Creation: We will gain knowledge of biblical and theological resources to articulate a Christian vision of reconciliation associated with peace, justice, fraternity and creation care.	6 weeks (November 4 to December 12, 2021)	Session I: Biblical and Theological Perspectives on Peace and Justice	4-nov	* One (1) introductory session per module (watch a pre-recorded session on YouTube) * Mentoring meeting (space for personalized accompaniment in the learning process of each participant) * Group Peer Mentoring Session (interaction for cultivating candid conversation using discussion guides. 2 hours per module) * Practical Learning (practical application of what we are learning, using practice guides. 8 hours per module approx.) * An integrative activity (final integrative assessment due on June 30, 2022)
			Session II: Biblical and Theological Perspectives on Human Coexistence.	18-nov
			Session III: Biblical and Theological Perspective on Creation Care	2-dic
	Lament: we will receive the gift of lament by acknowledging the suffering generated by injustice expressed due to ethnic discrimination, violence in contexts of high social and political polarization, and the damage to creation.	6 weeks (January 24 to March 6, 2022)	Session I: The Importance of Lament in the Americas	27-ene
			Session II: Participation in the Lament of the Black and indigenous communities of the Americas	10-feb
			Session III: Participation in the Lament of Creation in the Americas	24-feb
	Hope and Liberation: We will understand the connections between liberation, reconciliation, and hope in Scripture, and identify concrete experiences of hope and transformation in the Americas.	6 weeks (March 7 to April 17, 2022)	Session I: Signs of Hope and Transformation in the Americas	10-mar
			Session II: Doing Theology with Indigenous and Afro-descendant Communities in the Americas	24-mar
			Session III: Working for Environmental Justice in the Americas	7-abr
	Vocation: we will explore creative ways to embrace the fragility and joy of the call to serve in the field of transformation and reconciliation for peaceful and just coexistence in daily life.	6 weeks (April 18 to May 29, 2022)	Session I: Cultivating a Christian Spirituality for Justice and Peace	21-abr
			Session II: Becoming Agents for Peaceful Coexistence in Contexts of Polarization and Conflict	5-may
			Session III: Cultivating Environmental Stewardship in Everyday Life	19-may	